The 14th International Scientific and Practical Conference on «Transformation of Fiscal Policy in the Context of Eurointegration»

INFORMATIONAL LETTER

Dear Colleagues,

On the occasion of the 102nd anniversary of the founding of our educational institution and the 2nd anniversary of the establishment of the State Tax University, we are delighted to extend an invitation to international (excluding aggressor countries) and Ukrainian representatives from the legislative and executive branches, businesses, experts, scholars, and young researchers to participate in the International Scientific and Practical Conference, "Transformation of Fiscal Policy in the Context of European Integration," which will take place on December 8, 2023.

The conference's objective is to facilitate effective communication between practitioners and scholars in the fields of public finance, taxation, and customs matters. Additionally, it aims to collectively define the priority directions for the socio-economic development of Ukrainian society within the context of European integration, particularly during a state of war.
